Dear Sir, Madam,

The Delft School of Design and the International Institute for Asian Studies cordially invite you to attend the international workshop:

The East-Asian Urban Environment: Shanghai, Hong Kong & Singapore

5 June 2009

Convenor:

Ir. Gregory Bracken (DSD)

Venue:

Oostserre, Faculty of Architecture, TU Delft
Julianalaan 134
Delft
The Netherlands

The aim of this international workshop is to investigate the state of urban design in an East-Asian context, particularly how cities like Shanghai, Hong Kong and Singapore interact as nodes in the global city network. The roles of these cities' colonial histories will also be examined to see how they have affected recent urban developments. This workshop is intended as the first in a series of annual events examining the field of urban design in Asia.

Speakers:

M. Christine Boyer (Princeton University), Stephen Lau (University of Hong Kong),
Arie Graafland (Delft School of Design), Gregory Bracken (Delft School of Design),
M.Sc. students' spokesperson: Singapore Studio (Delft School of Design).

Please visit <http://www.iias.nl> or <http://delftschoolofdesign.eu> for further information and the programme.
