

DSD
Delft School of Design

PUBLIC LECTURE SERIES 2009

Prof Karsten Harries
Yale University

“Architecture’s Need for an Environmental Aesthetics”

Friday 13 March 2009

Time: 11:00

Location: Auditorium D

Professor Karsten Harries is a noted scholar of Heidegger, early modern philosophy, and the philosophy of art and architecture. A member of Yale's faculty since 1961, he was named in 2006 as the first incumbent of the Brooks and Suzanne Ragen Professorship in Philosophy. Professor Harries has published more than 180 articles and five books, two of which received international commendation. The Bavarian Rococo Church: Between Faith and Aestheticism was runner-up for the prestigious Confédération Internationale de Négociants en Oeuvres d'Art Award, and The Ethical Function of Architecture won the American Institute of Architects 8th Annual International Architecture Book Award for Criticism.

This Lecture is cosponsored by MoTiv | Center for development of spirituality in profession and business | www.motiv.tudelft.nl

For further information please visit the DSD website: www.delftschoolofdesign.eu

DSD
Delft School of Design

TU Delft

www.delftschoolofdesign.eu